THE BUDGET
THE LEGISLATURE
The Toronto-Hamilton Highway
Not to be Regarded as a Precedent in the Matter of Aid.

MAJOR TOLMIE

Shared Up the Members With His Maiden Speech—Defended the Clergy.

Toronto, Feb. 26.—The aid bill given by the Government to the Toronto-Hamilton highway is not the most special consideration that can be given to the highway as it is regarded as a general principle of aid to other projects in the province. This point was made by Hon. P. G. Macdonald, in his maiden speech, during the reading of the bill in the House yesterday.

FINANCIAL ECONOMY.
Hon. J. M. McDonald, North Bruce, in the debate on the Budget, said that the Government was not giving the money to the highway, but was giving it to the highway.

According to all the Budget, McDonald said this was a time when the Government was not giving the money to the highway, but was giving it to the highway.

Confessions of a Wife

Isn't it strange, little book, that the worst quarrels we have with those we love are started over such little things?

This morning Dick got up cross and when he went to put on his tie it would not "pull" in his collar. Pinned it, it jerked which caused him to tear it.

Then I, who could not keep my mouth shut like a sensible woman, remarked: "That tie cost one dollar."

Of course that exasperated him, and that he jerked off his collar and doing so tore his shirt down and across the back.

Even then I did not know enough to keep still and said: "You heaved cash, Dick, don't be a child."

"Will you kindly keep still, Margie?" asked Dick when he felt he had said enough.

"Of course, I will but I hate to see you make such a fool of yourself."

"I don't want to hear of that," said Dick, "I don't want to hear of that."

"Good lord, woman! Can't a man give his wife a little love?"

"You know you did not swear at your collar button, you swore at me."

"I don't want to hear of that," said Dick, "I don't want to hear of that."

"Good lord, woman! Can't a man give his wife a little love?"

"You know you did not swear at your collar button, you swore at me."
